

ARMIES MANOUVER FOR POINTS OF VANTAGE IN GREAT BATTLE TO COME

REAL DETAILS OF WHAT IS HAPPENING IN WAR ZONE DIFFICULT TO GATHER OWING TO CENSORSHIP.

EXPECT BATTLE HOURLY

Both French and German armies claim minor victories—Liege Still Holds Out and Skirmishes Are Frequent on French Frontiers.

The meagerness of dispatches from the war centers of Europe today appears to indicate that the censorship has become stricter than ever. Neither from England nor France has any news been allowed to pass over the cables as to the progress of events or to the positions of movements of the huge armies of German, French, Belgian, Austrian and British troops which it is assumed must now be within striking distances.

A short Brussels dispatch received via London says: "The German retreat reported yesterday is becoming more marked today. The significance of this statement can only be guessed at. It may mean that an engagement in force actually is in progress or it may refer only to the general covering movements that have been in course of execution for several days in Belgium."

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Brussels, Aug. 11, via London, Aug. 12.—An official report states that communication has been restored with Landau, a village in the province of Alsace, seven miles southeast of Metz. The Belgians blew up several bridges at their front in that vicinity which gave rise to the report of an artillery engagement. No news has arrived showing that such an action took place.

New German Tactics.

The German army is being detached from its position before Liege and is advancing through the heart of Belgium. The Belgians blew up several bridges at their front in that vicinity which gave rise to the report of an artillery engagement. No news has arrived showing that such an action took place.

Denies Heavy Losses.

London, August 12.—The correspondent of the exchange telegraph company at Rome says that a dispatch from the Italian government given by General Von Stein regarding the siege of Liege. The German commander denies the loss of 20,000 men but does not give figures of his own. He says that only a small number of German troops were engaged in order to mass the movement of the bulk of the army. The enemy's advance attacking force, he says, was completely annihilated, and while admitting that the forts remain intact, explains this by saying:

"The emperor did not wish to sacrifice lives unnecessarily, but so soon as the heavy artillery arrives the forts will be taken without the loss of a man."

General Von Stein admits that the capture of the forts is a difficult problem because of the unfavorable ground about them, and further because the population of the town, including the women, shot at the German troops from behind, firing indiscriminately, hitting the insurgents and the wounded. The German commander concludes with the remark that "it must not be forgotten that the Belgian force is numerically superior to ours."

Explains Situation.

London, August 12.—The military position at Liege, Belgium, also along the Franco-German frontier, where the opposing outposts are in touch, and in Alsace where several engagements between a French invading army and the German defenders, respectively, were fought, is explained in a dispatch from the French foreign minister received here this morning.

Unimportant Engagements.

Small unimportant engagements have occurred along the whole line, where the French and German armies are facing each other from Belfort opposite the southernmost part of Alsace, to Liege in Belgium.

In these encounters the French cavalry has always maintained its superiority over the German mounted troops while our artillery has been splendidly served.

Kept to Mountains.

"Our troops have kept the crests and passes of the Vosges mountains and they dominate the heights of Alsace."

A line between Thann (22 miles southwest of Kolmar, Alsace) and Altkirch is held by our armies. This line runs slightly to the rear of Mulhouse. "The French government indignantly denies that there was any violation of German territory by the French army before the declaration of war."

Artillery Battle.

Amsterdam, August 12.—A dispatch from Maestricht to the Telegram says that a terrific artillery firing was heard throughout the morning coming from the direction of Tongres to the north of Liege. The concussion was felt in Maestricht.

Fort at Pontoon.

The second attempt of the German army to build a pontoon bridge at Huerst over the Meuse was successful according to a dispatch from Maestricht to the Telegram today. The bridge is intended for the passage of siege artillery, several of which are being sent to Liege and others to Namur.

MONTENEGRIN ARMY JOINS SERBIAN AT BORDER FOR BATTLE

Two Armies Operating Together—Serbian Artillery Shelling City Near Capital.

Nish Serbia, August 12.—The Serbian and Montenegrin armies which had affected a juncture on the border Herzegovina now are operating together. Serbian artillery is engaged in the bombardment of Goscowa on the river Drina, twenty-nine miles southeast of Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital. Serbian troops already have captured the Bosnian town of Varosje, the junction of the rivers Drina and Sava.

Some unimportant outpost encounters are reported on the Serbian frontier on different points on the river Save and Danube.

Self.

The bombardment of Belgrade by the Austrian artillery continued today and heavy material damage was inflicted on the city.

Reports reaching here from Sophia state that the Bulgarian government is preparing for eventualities, but it is not known what it has in view.

Rome, August 12.—Via London, 4:25 P. M.—A newspaper states that the Montenegrin troops have captured Soutari.

SON KILLS FATHER DURING A QUARREL

Porter Spencer Has Squabble With Brother Over Account, When Father Interferes—Porter Then Shoots Self.

Clinton, Ill., August 12.—In a quarrel over $12 in accounts, Porter Spencer, aged 48, a farmer shot and killed his father, John Spencer, age 78, here today. The quarrel started between Porter and his brother, Thomas. When the father interfered, Porter fired upon him. After chasing his brother into a corn field, Porter turned the gun on himself and blew out his brains.

NOTED AMERICAN WOMAN, WAR REFUGEE FROM PARIS, REPORTED ILL IN LONDON

New York, Aug. 12.—A cable message from London today announced the serious illness there of Mrs. J. Ronden Harriman, who with her husband is a war refugee from Paris. The message stated that Mrs. Harriman is suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

Mrs. Harriman is a member of the commission on industrial relations, and is one of the first women appointed to an important federal place by President Wilson.

PIONEER OF WISCONSIN FOUND IN RIVER AT OSHKOSH LAST NIGHT

Oshkosh, Aug. 12.—The body of James H. Johnson was found floating in the river near the Light street bridge last evening at about eight o'clock. He had been missing from his boarding house since Sunday. It is believed he committed suicide over grief for his wife who died several months ago. He was sixty-two years old, and was a prominent old resident of the city. Before coming to Oshkosh he had been in a contracting business at Watertown, Wisconsin.

AMERICANS ABROAD PLAN COMING HOME

FEDERAL DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZES CHARTERING OF SHIPS TO RETURN REFUGEES TO AMERICAN SOIL.

MANY ARE IN EGYPT

Many Tourists Are Stranded—Washington Has Been Notified—Will Give Assistance.

Washington, August 12.—Authority was today given American embassies and legations throughout Europe to charter ships in which to bring home Americans.

Secretary Garrison as chairman of the relief committee composed of the secretaries of state, war, navy and treasury, sent out instructions to each embassy and legation to make inquiry as to available ships and if Americans can be concentrated at open ports immediately, to charter neutral ships.

Given Instructions.

The diplomatic officers were told not to pay higher rates than those usually charged by the liners for a similar service.

All thoughts of sending vessels over from the United States to bring back the Americans, has been abandoned. It is felt that the moving of the refugees may be greatly expedited by the charter of neutral vessels wherever they are available.

Reports Received.

Consular reports received from Antwerp say that Americans on board the steamers Finland and Marquette here, left that city for America via London. The dispatch also contains the sentence:

"Antwerp port closed; Germany."

It is not known whether that meant Antwerp was closed to or by the Germans.

Many in Egypt.

Notice has reached the state department that a number of Americans in Egypt without money and want transportation.

Breaking off of diplomatic relations between Austria-Hungary and France was reported officially to the state department by Ambassador Penfield at Vienna.

Dispatches to the British embassy from London today say there is no fear of a shortage of coal in England. Details were not given out, but it is believed here England may import fuel.

Secure Steamers.

New York, Aug. 12.—The Italian steamers San Giovanni, San Giorgio and San Guglielmo have been placed at the disposal of American tourists in Italy and will sail from Naples, each with 1,000 Americans aboard on August 15, 18 and 19 respectively.

Dutch Steamer In.

The Dutch steamer Potsdam, from Bologne, one day overdue, reached New York this evening with more than 800 passengers, many of them American refugees from Europe, who left so hurriedly that they were unable to bring their baggage.

Ansonia Arrives.

The British steamer Ansonia from Glasgow and London, with 125 second class and 117 steerage passengers, arrived at New York today.

The steamer Danube from the West Indies, in today, reports sighting a British cruiser outside of Antilla, Cuba.

FAVOR AUTHORIZING AMERICAN REGISTRY OF FOREIGN SHIPS

Emergency Shipping Measure Passes Senate and Comes Before House for Approval.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The bill authorizing the president in his discretion to admit to American registry foreign built ships less than five years old, was passed by the senate today for its action. The measure was sent over from the senate, where it had been agreed to without a roll call. It was materially amended, however, as it passed the committee.

One of the principal amendments adopted by the senate which aroused considerable opposition was that offered by Senator Cummins to require American ownership of the majority of the stock of corporations seeking to register vessels hereafter acquired. Opponents of the amendment, who declare that any such limitations would deprive the president of his discretion, would deny the measure an emergency step to meet the situation created by the European war, claim that the provision will be stricken out in conference between the house and senate.

The senate amended the bill so as to authorize the president in his judgment to admit foreign-built ships to the trade between Atlantic and Pacific and gulf and lake ports.

DIPLOMATS DELAYED IN REACHING POSTS

Newly Appointed Ambassadors to France and Russia Are Unable to Take Up Duties.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Newly appointed diplomats are experiencing considerable difficulty in reaching their posts abroad, on account of the European war.

Wm. G. Sharp, the new ambassador to France, is still in Washington awaiting an opportunity to get to Paris. Pending his arrival Mr. Herrick will continue in charge, and it is intimated that because of his close personal acquaintance with the French officials he will be requested to remain in the service of the state department even after the arrival there of Mr. Sharp, while the latter familiarizes himself with the heavy demands of the post at this critical time.

George T. Marye, newly appointed American ambassador to Russia, is also marooned in his own country as a result of the war.

Ira Nelson, the new American ambassador to Sweden, with his wife and private secretary, were to sail from New York today for Stockholm on a Norwegian steamer.

BRAZIL AUTHORIZES PAPER MONEY ISSUE

$150,000,000 Addition to Country's Currency Provided by Congressional Act.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Aug. 12.—Both chambers of the Brazilian congress today approved the emission of three hundred thousand (300,000) of paper. Of this sum 200,000 contos is destined for the payment of treasury creditors and is convertible, ten per cent of the proceeds of the customs duties being allotted for the purpose, the remaining 100,000 contos is intended to aid the banks, which will pay six per cent interest on them and are called upon to repurchase them before December 31, 1915.

ENGLAND WILL NOT OPEN BRANCH BANK

Ten Million Which Came on Cecilie Will Be Deposited With Canadian Finance Minister.

London, Aug. 12.—The bank of England is not to open a branch at Ottawa, Canada, as has been reported. It is understood that the $10,000,000 of specie, which made the voyage almost across the Atlantic and back on board the Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, will be sent to Ottawa to come back to England and will make payments in London against this and other funds which will be deposited with the Canadian minister of finance.

HEARING ADJOURNED UNTIL AUGUST 25TH

Railroad Commission Engineers Will Investigate Original Construction Cost of Waterworks.

The hearing before the state railroad commission on the valuation of the Janesville waterworks was adjourned yesterday until August 25th for the purpose of allowing the state engineers to investigate the claims of the company on the original cost of the construction of the plant.

Testimony given by the company's representative at the hearing Monday and Tuesday showed that their claim as to the construction cost, including labor and material from 1887 to the present time to be a total of $263,000. The claim made was that the cost from 1892 to the present year was $78,000, and from 1887 to 1892 was $185,000.

The commission engineers are in the city at the present time going over the receipts and vouchers in the company's books to ascertain the original and maintenance cost. The auditors, who examined the company's books, were not placed on the stand yesterday.

BRITISH SLOOP OF WAR REACHES SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, August 12.—The British sloop of war Algerine, which was sighted off Cape Mendocino at 2:00 p. m. yesterday by the American coast guard, which arrived here from Portland today. The Algerine was cleared for action and not a sailor's head showed above the rail.

ADOGRAM NO. 10

When we see a steer endeavoring to butt a locomotive from the track we may admire his courage, but we condemn his judgment.

There is an object lesson in this for the manufacturer who uses newspaper advertising for national wide publicity without having distribution.

National advertisers who use newspapers spend their money where it actually moves their products from the dealers' shelves to people's homes. Newspaper advertising is the most profitable, because it eliminates waste.

HARVESTER CONCERN ORDERED DISSOLVED

UNITED STATES COURT FILES DECISION, WHICH IS OBJECTIONABLE.

GIVEN NINETY DAYS

To Dissolve or Court Will Entertain for a Receiver—Case Will Soon Go to Supreme Court.

St. Paul, Aug. 12.—The International Harvester company today was declared to be a monopoly in restraint of interstate and foreign trade and was ordered dissolved by a majority decision filed here by Judges Smith and Hook in the United States court.

Judge Walter H. Sanborn dissented. Unless the corporation submits a plan for a dissolution within ninety days, the court will entertain an application for a receiver.

To Be Appealed.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—The Harvester case will be taken to the supreme court of the United States as soon as possible according to a statement made here today by Cyrus McCormick, president of the International Harvester company. Mr. McCormick said:

"The adverse decision is a great disappointment. As I understand it is not based on actual wrongs done in the conduct of the business of the International Harvester company, but on the elimination of competition more than ten years ago between the companies whose properties were purchased by it."

Acquits Company.

"The adverse decision acquits the company and its officers and directors of the charges of over-capitalizing and unfair and oppressive policies and practices."

It does not sustain the charge made in the petition of the government but abounds on the argument that the company had charged excessive or unfair prices.

Aside from its original organization and the facts connected with its purchase of competitive plants, the opinion finds nothing to be condemned in the history of the company's growth or in the manner of developing and carrying on its business. The organization of the company and the purchase of its plants were acts done in the belief that no law was being violated after consultation with competent counsel of the highest standing."

Goed But Illegal.

"The conclusion arrived at seems to be that the Harvester is a good but illegal trust. Its business has been conducted fairly and the economies secured by its organization have inured to the benefit of its customers, the farmers, but nevertheless the majority of the judges hold its existence to be illegal."

Decision is by a divided court and this case will not be ended until the supreme court has said the last word."

LARGER INCOME TAX FROM CORPORATIONS THIS YEAR--HAUGEN

Chairman of the State Tax Commission Examines Some Returns. —Business Shows Prosperity.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—Nils P. Haugen, chairman of the state tax commission, predicts that the amount of income tax collected from corporations of the state this year will be greater than ever before. The detailed figures have not been compiled, but he says that an examination of the returns of a large number of the corporations show that last year's business, upon which the tax is assessed, was an especially prosperous one in some lines.

"From the examination thus far made of the corporation tax for 1913 it would seem would be an increase over the tax collected before," said Mr. Haugen today. "The returns from different counties in different sections of the state have been examined, and while there has been a falling off in some businesses, the majority show an increase. This is especially true with some of the larger corporations."

The total tax assessed against corporations last year was $2,792,605.40, which was an increase of $407,389.10 over the previous year. The amount collected from the corporations last year exceeded over twice the amount collected from individuals. Of the total amount of tax collected 70 per cent goes to the locality in which the tax is collected, 20 per cent goes to the locality and 10 per cent to the state. The entire cost of collecting the tax is paid for by the state. This includes the salaries and expenses of the local income tax assessors. The total cost of the income tax assessors and the work of the commission in collecting the tax is about $100,000. As the income tax assessors must do the work of the supervisors of assessment, which formerly cost upwards of $50,000, it is estimated that the cost of collecting the income tax is about $50,000.

SUPREME COURT TO MEET IN SEPTEMBER

August Calendar Will Be Taken Up At That Time—Many Cases From 16th Circuit.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—The supreme court announced today that it would meet on September 15 to take up the regular August calendar. The cases on the first assignment include the first thirty-three cases on the calendar, including case No. 6, which involves the right of the trustees of the Stout Manual Training School to hold up the appropriations for that building. This action appears in the form of a mandamus to compel the trustees to first assign the case to the state industrial commission and Fredericka Ritzon.

The holding up of the appropriations is a part of the plan of Gov. McGovern to withhold appropriations that the tax rate next year may be lower. Nearly all of the cases on the first assignment come from the sixteenth judicial circuit. The first case for argument is that of Gilkey & Anderson Company v. Doolittle. Other important cases on the calendar involve the validity of fees collected by the county of Milwaukee which have been litigated for several years, the case of Diller v. Estate of McQuade involving the validity of the inheritance tax law, and the case of the City of Milwaukee v. The State Industrial Commission and Fredericka Ritzon.

There are 262 regular cases on the calendar announced today and eleven state cases. The only state case to be taken up at the first assignment is the one involving the Stout school appropriation.

His arguments will be clearly outlined, and an invitation is open to all to listen to the speaker.

PHILIPP'S ARGUMENTS

Appraised by Hearers—Bancroft Scores Points—Judging Begins in Various Classes.

Today was Monroe day at the Janesville fair. It was also conservative republican day as well, and long before twelve a good-sized audience gathered in the grandstand to listen to the addresses of E. L. Philipp, conservative republican candidate for governor, and Hon. Levi Bancroft, candidate for United States senator. They arrived on the grounds shortly before twelve, took dinner at the United Brethren dining hall, viewed the stock and various exhibits and then proceeded to the grandstand where they delivered their addresses to an interested and ever-increasing crowd.

In a straight forward and convincing appeal to the voters in the interest of economy and against extravagance in the administration of state affairs in Wisconsin, Candidate Emanuel L. Philipp of Milwaukee, the choice of the conservative republicans of the state for governor, urged his cause at the Janesville fair grounds at noon today. He was introduced to a large audience in the grandstand by former State Senator J. M. Whitehead.

"We are making this campaign," declared Mr. Philipp after a few preliminary remarks in which he sketched the events leading up to his candidacy, "against high taxes. Taxes in Wisconsin were four millions of dollars in 1908 and they were nearly six millions in 1913. That is a per capita cost for state government of $2 in 1908 to $5 in 1913, or an increase of 400 per cent. I take the year 1890 because it was in that year that you had your last business administration. That was the year in which Edward Scofield, prominently a conservative business man, served you as chief executive."

"The question now to consider is whether you are getting your money's worth. Are you satisfied with the returns which you receive from your state government? Are you satisfied with the amount expended? Compared with the amount expended in 1908, you are then merely want to keep on in the way you are in, but if you are dissatisfied, if you take the attitude, 'No, we are not getting our money's worth, then you are demanding a decided change in the method of managing the state's affairs.'"

"As I have traveled over the state I have found that the prevailing dissatisfaction is general. Farmers, business men and taxpayers are agitated in the condemnation of extravagance, and they started the agitation against high taxes six months ago."

"The great extravagance in our state affairs is not in the constitutional offices, it is rather in the board and commissions that you will find the steady increase in expense." Mr. Philipp then indicated the immense advance in the cost of the railroad in Wisconsin from $7,000 in 1900 to $163,000 in 1913 and of the tax commission from $7,000 to $156,000 in 1913. These, he said, were only a few of the commissions and only indicated the trend of affairs among the appointive offices.

Mr. Philipp paid a tribute to the non-partisan movement of Wisconsin which has been responsible, he said, for showing the people the extent of state extravagance.

After the non-partisan movement had been inaugurated the candidates began to announce themselves, and in response to the warnings of committees sent out from Madison, said Mr. Philipp, each of the so-called candidates in turn, advocated economy in state affairs. They admitted, he said, "strange as this may seem, that taxes had not only been high, but that the people's money had been squandered and we had the astounding situation of the men representing the party which was responsible for all these progressive ideas, repudiating the work which they had done. Mr. Dahl even advocated the abolition of the legislative reference library, which he called the 'bill factory,' where all progressive laws of the past decade had received their birth."

"When Senator La Follette took a hand in the fight he blamed McGovern for the high tax situation, and then McGovern blamed La Follette. They all admitted that the money had been spent unwisely, but every one

CROWDS OF CHILDREN ARE GUESTS AT FAIR

THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED YOUNGSTERS ENJOY TIME OF THEIR LIVES ON TUESDAY.

BIG DAY FOR KIDDIES

DuBrook's Performing Ponies, Fox Hunt and Polo Game Are Thoroughly Enjoyed.—Colts Show Form in Races.

Thirty-five hundred children, it is estimated, were entertained at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon at the opening of the Janesville fair, and thirty-five hundred children returned to their homes last night tired but happy, and eager to tell about the wonderful things they saw. From far and near the kiddies came. The country as well as the city was represented and there was nothing except any one of them.

The grand stand was thrown open to the youngsters and it was crowded to its capacity. The children clapped enthusiastically at the feats of the performing ponies and horses of the DuBrook company and even enjoyed the taste of horse racing which was afforded by the cold events. Of course the side-shows, merry-go-round, ferris wheel and motorcade were certain lures for the youngsters and it was hard for indulgent mothers to keep down the allowance of lemonade, ice cream and popcorn which goes with an outing of this sort.

There were races for the boys of the city playgrounds which attracted those inclined to athletic contests. The opening race was the 100 yard dash for boys under twelve years of age. In this event Roy Connell won first, Charles Munson and Wilbur Lovelace capturing second and third respectively.

Youngsters over twelve years of age lined up for the next event, which was a race over the same distance. Roy Hunt, capturing the line first, in a spectacular spurt. Robert Crowley placed second and Clement Roberts third.

The pony race was postponed and the bicycle event over the half mile course was staged. Devey Brinker finished a little ahead of the rest in good time. He was followed by William Wagman, second and Leroy Britt, third.

DuBrook's Spectable.

DuBrook's big afternoon features, including the hurdle race, Roman standing race, polo game, fox hunt, high school race, the 100 yard dash and the famous truck horses, provided almost an hour's entertainment for the children and other spectators. The tango horses were highly appreciated, while the polo game was a sensational affair.

Two-Year-Old Colt.

In the two-year-old trot race over the half mile course, in half mile heats, Susie Zombro captured two first in succession, winning the event. Atlanta ran a third and a second, Robert Mark a second and a fourth, while the worthy Worthy won fourth and a third. The time for the first heat was 1:16 and for the second, 1:12 1/2.

Three-Year-Old Pace.

Don Compton won two successive heats in the three-year-old pace event, in good time, the first heat being taken in 2:18 1/2 and the second in 2:21 1/2, over the half mile course. The event was a mile and a half. Gen. Luther's Baby won two thirds, Margaret Patch, two thirds, Desplaneville two fourths, and Sir Achibald, two fifths. These two races completed the afternoon's race program.

Despite the large number of children that thronged every section of the grounds yesterday afternoon, there was not an accident or untoward event to mar the day's pleasure, all of which speaks well for the ground management.

WILL GIVE DECISION IN CASE ON THURSDAY

After arguments and testimony were advanced by attorneys in the case of the state vs. Charles Bellharz, charged by Charles W. Seers with assault and battery the case was adjourned until Thursday when Judge Maxfield will render the judicial decision. The case was tried yesterday afternoon.

Defending Attorney M. O. Monat introduced testimony through witnesses to show that Seers was at fault having attempted to induce a strike among the employees of the canning factory and then failed to obey the orders of Bellharz. It is alleged that Bellharz who is an assistant foreman at the Hohmann factory struck Seers following an argument with the employee about Seers' failure to open the factory as was ordered. Those who testified for the defense were Fred J. Bellharz, Otto Work and Fred F. Miller.

Attorney E. H. Ryan represented the state and Charles Storm and Andrew Dorsey testified for the state.

CHILDREN AT FAIR SEE THE EXHIBITS

Little Folks Take Active Interest in Various Displays—Babies Foster Democratic Spirit.

There were babies and babies and then more babies at the fair yesterday. Wherever you looked they returned your smiling gaze. If the parents of all the babies we saw were as democratic as the babies, our acquaintance list would be much larger. Candidly speaking, it is, for we have yet to meet the woman who will not talk "baby" with another woman. The men are not immune from this little habit entirely either.

Of course there were prize stock of every conceivable description. Stock that was a delight to the eye. One thing we noticed, the entries are not all confined to our county, by any means. The "way up state" people are here with some fine animals. Another fact that caught and held our attention was the number of children that were actively interested in the exhibits. There is the solution of how to keep our young boys on the farm. Make them partners in the concern.

As you wander up and down with your eyes wide open for the sights you cannot fail to notice how the slogan "Better stock" has caught and held the farmer of today. Neither can you fail to notice how the selfsame slogan has been raised and used in connection with our babies. "Better babies" is what you saw on every hand. No one needs to worry about race suicide in our county—babies are just as fashionable as they ever were. Statisticians can delve into long rows of figures and then write melancholy predictions about the future of our fine old U. S. If you walk through them and feel blue, cheer up! Tuesday, at the fair, there were enough babies (almost) to quell the trouble in the old world, or start a bigger racket had they started up.

In the culinary department are to be found eatables that are fit for a king. Yes! we'll go a step farther and say they are good enough for an American citizen. They make you so hungry, just to look at their dainty loveliness. They tempt you almost beyond resistance, to break the seventh commandment. And samples of sewing, in all its branches, is there in full force. The person who writes about the decadence of this womanly art evidently never visited a fair. There is work on exhibition from the hands of women ranging in age from ten to eighty-six years. And the work sent in by the dear little old lady of eighty-six is the work of an adept. Looking at it one is brought face to face with the indisputable fact, that true happiness is to be found in keeping busy.

The bitches of the fair are within calling distance if one has the money and inclination for this form of amusement. One of our local men (who is the father of a large and prosperous family) was heard anxiously inquiring of one of the future forecasters as to his chances of ever having a home and family. But everyone was happy, everyone was having a splendid time. If we could have our choice of going (we were going to say Heaven) the Panama exposition or the Janesville Fair, we would unhesitatingly say: The Janesville Fair. Have you been? Are you going?

Your feet would ache if you walked from house to house of all real estate concerns in looking for the places where there are rooms for rent. A few minutes study of the Gazette Want Ads will give you a list of the most desirable places.

EKERN URGES MEANS OF REDUCING FIRE INSURANCE RATES

Commissioner Declares Rates Can Be Reduced Twenty Per Cent in State.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—That the fire insurance rates in Wisconsin can be reduced an average of 20 percent and that the people of Wisconsin have been overcharged more than $15,000,000 in the last ten years is the conclusion of Commissioner of Insurance Ekern in a letter to the fire chiefs of the state today. He also points out that while throughout the United States the payment of $100 loss costs policyholders $155 in premiums, in Wisconsin the policyholders are charged $233 in premiums for every $100 loss. In 1912 the charge was $283, and in 1913 for every $100 paid in losses. The 1913 per capita loss for the United States is $2.10, and for Wisconsin $1.61, which still leaves room for fire prevention. He points out that the average loss of Russia is 83 cents, England 53 cents, Switzerland 15 cents, and the Netherlands 11 cents, according to Mr. Ekern's letter.

The commissioner urges liberal support to the fire departments in the fire prevention work which already has so materially reduced the Wisconsin loss rate. Accompanying the letter is a tabulation of the losses and premiums for all the cities and villages in the state for the past three years, showing the ratio of losses to premiums and to population for each city and village.

The complete letter of Commissioner Ekern follows:

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12, 1914.

Dear Sir:

A remarkably good showing is made by the state of Wisconsin with regard to fire losses. This cannot fail to be due in large part to the active and efficient work of the fire departments in making inspections to prevent fires. Begun in this state some time ago, it is not required all over the state under the law passed two years ago. This work cost but very little in addition to the regular cost of the fire department, and the city councils and village boards can well afford to be liberal in making necessary prizes for doing this work most thoroughly. The cost of trifling compared with the saving in possible fires, and even compared the ordinary fires from year to year. As the work is carried on and perfected from year to year the property owners will benefit immensely in reduced fire insurance premiums. In this connection, the public should be given to understand that it is the intention of the insurance department to insist that premiums be reduced accordingly, and to ask for the necessary legislation which will bring about this result.

The three years' figures for the eight largest cities in the state are as follows:

City—	Population 1910	Premiums 1911-13	Losses	Ratio	Annual per capita loss
Milwaukee	373,857	$6,257,101.26	$2,696,781.03	43%	2.41
Superior	40,284	987,101.28	346,239.08	35%	2.86
Racine	38,062	606,418.97	286,977.17	47%	2.55
Madison	25,331	405,128.01	142,950.84	28%	1.87
Oshkosh	38,062	508,644.01	188,463.56	37%	3.81
Green Bay	25,236	404,553.36	90,630.56	22%	1.19
Sheboygan	26,398	424,192.39	259,429.73	61%	3.28
La Crosse	30,417	398,404.58	72,073.19	18%	.79
City and village	1,192,850	19,191,370.89	8,007,934.36	42%	2.24
Town total	1,141,210	7,704,335.00	4,360,217.00	56%	1.27
State total	2,333,860	26,895,705.89	12,368,152.36	46%	1.77

The losses for any year for a single city or village will, of course, fluctuate but on the whole for any large territory and for a period of three to five years, the ratio of losses to premiums is fairly constant. For each $100 in premiums paid to the stock companies in the state during the last ten years there has been returned in losses about $54, and in the state of Wisconsin during the last ten years $43, and in Wisconsin in 1913 $43.

In other words, throughout the United States the stock companies collected $185 for each $100 losses during the past ten years, and in Wisconsin during the same time they collected $233, and in 1912 $263.

and in 1913 $294 for each $100 paid for losses. It thus appears that, averaged over a ratio of 54% for the United States with 43% for Wisconsin, the premiums charged in Wisconsin should be about 80% of the present rate. In other words, on the ten year average, the people of Wisconsin are entitled to an average reduction in fire premiums of 20%. This means that the people of Wisconsin have been overcharged more than $15,000,000 during the last ten years.

There is no doubt that the most profitable business to the companies is the dwelling house and other small properties, and that the largest reduction should be made on these classes of property.

The per capita loss for the United States for 1913 is $2.10 while that for the state of Wisconsin is $1.61. However, there is enough room for fire prevention work in that the per capita loss in foreign countries is only a small proportion of even the small loss in Wisconsin. Thus the per capita loss for 1913 in Russia was 83c, France 49c, England 53c, Ireland 28c, Austria and Italy 25c, Norway 22c, Switzerland 15c, and the Netherlands 11c.

To say that this is due to a difference in construction will not hold as to Switzerland, Norway or Russia. In Germany the large cities have grown faster than ours. Only a small part of the fires start from defective construction. The great cause is carelessness. This is by inspections. A fire prevented is a loss saved. An inspection is not so spectacular as a fire run but it costs less and it may be worth more.

The fire departments of the state are entitled to great credit for the way in which they have carried on their inspections, generally without increase in the force or increase in pay. Reports of losses will be the basis for finding out where losses can be prevented and where the fire insurance rates can be reduced. The co-operation of all means millions saved in fire losses and in lower insurance premiums.

Yours very truly,
HERMAN L. EKERN,
Commissioner of Insurance

PLAN BIG MATCHES IN BOXER'S RETURN

Champion Welsh Will Probably Invade United States This Fall Because of War Stricken Homeland.

(By Strikes.)

It is one grand rush among the American lightweights for matches now and every man of any note is looking at the top of his voice for a match with the three leaders, Welsh, Ritchie and White. Interest revived on the approach of the busy season for the padded mitt artists prospective matches are being sounded nearly every day. If anything, the war is going to help the game over here.

They are after Willie Ritchie since his return, but it is the former champ's intention of taking a recuperating rest in the California wilds and then don the fighting shoes—of course if they will pay him generously for his labor. One thing sure Ritchie will not be able to demand those ten thousand guarantee purses no more—for his defeat twice within a few months by White and Welsh has dropped his drawing ability for the promoter down to a reasonable amount. Anyway Ritchie has copped enough of long range to care for him the rest of his natural days for it is estimated the ex-champ has accumulated a fortune of over a hundred thousand dollars and the Californian has at least fifty thousand dollars worth of fight left in him. In sixty rounds of fighting he cleaned up over sixty thousand and was not damaged physically, but a lot mentally.

Ritchie just now expects two future matches one with Welsh—for the American claims he has a contract made before the London fight which he lost his title for a return match over the 20 round route and the other with Charlie White. Ritchie realizes that he has got to wipe out the stain of that Milwaukee defeat given him by the Chicago battler before he can hope to hang on the top rung of the ladder. Ritchie would like to have this match over the 20 round limit, for White will have the edge of a ten round bout because of his speed and cleverness, but it is a question if he could stand Ritchie's pace for the limit.

Because the monarchs of Europe are making faces at each other it is certain that the American fighters who invaded the land across the big pond will return home in haste for none of them would care to be a target even for a king. Welsh without he joins the English army, will probably come to the United States in search of the shining gold pieces. If he does, he will have every lightweight in the country on his heels and it is a safe bet he will lose that belt if he meets the best that America has to offer.

Even the boxers in Australia are returning home for the game is lead down in the Antipodes because Australia wants to be England's second in the big war. Young Shrugue, former Jansville boxer, now of New York, is reported to be one of the new arrivals serving for a match.

Gusbat Smith, Morris and others will "beat it" back when they can escape and some good matches should result from their homecoming. Jess Welsh just now is clamoring for a chance with Gusbat Smith and it is high time the question of whose the best white heavyweight be settled. Smith is credited with a small shade

Joe Azevedo, who was defeated by Charlie White recently, now puts up the howl for an alibi that he was "doped." Since White has trimmed him twice and his injured hands only prevented him from putting Azevedo so he could not yell, the conclusion reached was that the only way the defeated boxer was doped was by White's punches. The more that White fights, the better impression he makes and he is the most formidable rival of Welsh and the hopes of America may be rested on the Chicago boy to bring back the title to its rightful resting place.

Ad Wogast is coming to the front again with the intention of his kick out hand and will meet a minor lightweight at Benton Harbor on Labor Day to test his hands out for a grueling season. Wogast is far from the end in the fighting game and in a twenty round battle would make the three kings pine away.

Gons Dols, a coming lightweight of Spring Valley will meet with Grover Hayes, a veteran at Kalamazoo tonight for ten rounds. Dols should win the match handily. Len Howlands is seeking a match with Dols if the latter whips Hayes. Hayes meets Jimmy Murphy, Chicago Italian lightweight at Hammond, Ind., August 18th.

Edna Kelly, the Harlem wonder has finished training for his twenty round match with "One Round" Hogan at the Juraez arena Thursday and reports have it that Kelly expects a victory over Hogan.

WANT TO PRY LID OFF BARBAY COAST

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

San Francisco, August 12.—Frantic efforts are being made today to pry the lid off the Barbary Coast for 1915. Keepers of the coast resorts of all sort don't care a cent—not now, at least—not until the lid is screened off after the fair is over, but they do so want to get the benefit of that exposition.

Most coasters had looked forward to such a rush of business while the big show was in progress that they could retire on competencies as soon as the gates closed. And then all at once, so suddenly that at first they hardly realized what happened to them down slammed the lid.

It was a step taken not exactly in the interest of good morals, though it pleased the reformers. The police commission issued its orders at the behest of business men who said the coast would keep more visitors away from the fair than it would attract. The coasters—and some of the business men agree with them—argue the contrary.

POWER BOATS RACE FOR HARMWORTH TROPHY CUP

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Cowes, Eng., Aug. 12.—Disturber IV, the American speedboat, captained by Commodore Pugh, its owner, today was picked as a probable winner of the International power boat contests in Osborne Bay near here this afternoon. The Disturber IV was built to make sixty miles an hour. If she made this great speed this afternoon, according to experts, she would carry off the coveted Harmworth trophy. The American boat was launched in Chicago July 2, and in her tests there came up to expectations in seaworthiness and speed.

Kid Mahoney, the flashy Racine featherweight, and Young Scotty, the Jones Islander who knocks them flat, are ready to crawl between the ropes for their ten round bout tonight before the Bower City Athletic Club at the Myers Theatre. The pair promise to make a corking good bout and the winner will be adjudged the best featherweight of the state.

This is the first meeting of the two kids, and while Mahoney has the edge in the matter of experience Scotty has the strength and the punch backed up with a fair amount of speed and cleverness that will make the Racine boy hustle. Dan Hyatt of Milwaukee will be the third man in the ring for his engagement here Hyde demonstrated that his work is satisfactory, for he keeps the boxers in action and allows no foul tactics to the Racine boy. Barney Griffin of Chicago in the eighth round semi-windup until the boxers weigh in this afternoon and Griffin declares he will not box Clark if the Milwaukee lightweight is not down to weight—135 pounds. Cramer has been training for the match and will be substituted in case Clark fails to balance the scales at the mark agreed upon. This bout should rival the main performance for cleverness and speed.

Bill Klein of Freeport will have his first adventure in a southern Wisconsin ring against Wausow, Milwaukee, for six rounds at 127 pounds, and "Shine" Reed's protegee will have to travel his limit to hold the Milwaukee boxer, Charlie Lyke, the fighting farmer of Jansville, will make his initial attempt in the ring against Burns.

Young Scotty, after resting Sunday and Monday with only light roadwork, dropped on the scales last night and found to his dismay he was two pounds overweight. Scotty immediately went through fourteen rounds of shadow boxing, bag punching, rope skipping and weight pulling and was beneath the mark when he came down by his trainers. The Jones Island featherweight realizes the importance of this match and has made all preparations for trimming Mahoney and trimming him quick. Scotty remarked that he had never trained in a gymnasium in his life nor at any clubs, but learned the game by fighting bigger men until now he was ready to meet all comers.

THE ASSEMBLY QUESTION.

Voters in Rock county this coming primary are confronted with the problem of nominating candidates for the assembly from the two districts in the county. In the first the republicans have named two men as candidates, Whitte and Barless, both of whom stand for a decided reduction of taxes and state expenses. In the second district the republicans are confronted with the problem of selection between two men, one of whom is a member of the assembly, which was responsible for the present high taxes and who stands on a platform that is anything but retrenchment in state affairs or decreasing taxation, and A. J. Winegar, a resident of Beloit, who stands for what Whitte and Barless do in the first district. The Beloit Free Press says of Mr. Winegar and his candidacy:

"A. J. Winegar of this city is a candidate for the assembly. He is a candidate because he has headed the call of men in every profession and every trade to express for their opposition to the present tax-eating regime at Madison.

"Mr. Winegar is a sound and successful business man. He has no political affiliations of a damaging kind. He has no past record in the Wisconsin legislature to cover up. He stands for a new deal in Wisconsin politics, for unity and common sense in state administration and the application of business methods to the affairs of the state. He is not a politician. He is a business man. He is not a dreaming theorist. He is a practical man of affairs. He is not bound by past pledges and past favors received to vote for future appropriations. He does not need to make statements now contradictory to statements he made in the past. He does not need to make an 'about face' on affairs legislative because some political leader has slipped the plank out from under him by a remarkable declaration of non-intention. His state is clean. His only promises are his promises to the voters of this district that he will do everything in his power to bring state taxes back to somewhere near a sane and practical basis. He stands for the great movement that is sweeping over Wisconsin that has a concrete expression of its intentions, a determination to 'clean house' at the state capital, to send a sundry lot of sorry gentlemen back to the quiet solitudes of private life where they will not be in a position to vote extravagant appropriations on a long suffering public.

"A vote for Mr. Winegar means a vote for low taxes. It means a vote for business in place of theory in state affairs. It means a vote for a new deal and a square deal for all the people of the state and it means that every voter of this assembly district will be doing his full share to make the legislature at Madison a legislature in sympathy with the present demand of the people of the state for a 'house-cleaning' and not of a legislature composed of hungry politicians whose best claim to public office is their ability to catch the change in the wind and trim their own sails to ride it out and who only raised the cry against high taxes when it became evident that to take any other stand meant political oblivion."

PRICES NOT JUSTIFIED.

While Janesville merchants have not as yet aspired to raising their prices on commodities to the heights that other cities' business men have attained, still the general trend of commodities is upward instead of downward and the burden of war is held responsible for it. The advance in prices of foodstuffs and meats is perhaps psychological, but there is no economic excuse for it. "The process is one of mind, namely: There is a war. War means high prices. Therefore we will charge high prices," is the way the Chicago Tribune sums up the proposition. In the war centers of Europe there is a reason for high prices but here in the United States there is none. Even in the European countries the governments have taken drastic means to prevent the skyrocketing of prices and to keep prices down by even more severe measures. Why should not the United States government take a hand in the matter and protect the actual consumers who will

On The Spur of The Moment

Jim. We never counted much on Jim around the village, cuz there wasn't no git up to him; his relatives all wuz Jest sort o' shamed to speak about the way he loafed around. We knew him as a lazy lout, who jest laid on the ground and dreamed the hours away. They couldn't make him work. While others drilled ten hours a day his stunt was jest to look down on him in sort o' scornful style. Because he didn't have no vim. Jim would only smile. And keep on dreamin' right along, pre-occupied with the bluejay's song, and stare and stare and stare. He didn't mingle much, did Jim, but read an awful lot. When anyone would speak to him he'd jump like he was shot.

The other boys got up at five and earned six plunks a week. But Jim, he wasn't scared alive, a sort of village freak. One day he got an envelope from Washington, by jing! His breast filled with a sudden hope, because you see, the thing contained a letter patent for a rapid-fire gun.

That was supposed to end a war when it had scarce begun. He sold his patent right away, and he's a millionaire.

Our foremost citizen, we say, with civic pride to spare. He rides 'round in an auto now, and loafs a lot does Jim. But all the town folks do allow, they're mighty proud of him.

Two Towns Employ Paid Civic Secretaries

Two Wisconsin towns have definitely adopted the plan of making the school principal the civic secretary and pay him for this service.

M. T. Buckley has been reengaged at Sauk City, an addition being made to his salary as principal which is to be one-half weeks at a rate of $6.74 a week.

Caseo has just engaged R. M. Blackman with the specific understanding that the one-third increase of salary is to pay for the same sort of work the old New England town clerk did in getting the people together for the discussion of common problems and in promoting and organizing recreational activities for the whole town.

South Principals Buckley and Blackman are planning to start the season by arranging a series of meetings at which all local candidates for election will appear to present their claims upon the votes of the people, and also a series of meetings at which the constitutional amendments on which the people are to vote in November will be presented and discussed.

Both men are conferring with E. J. Ward of the Bureau of Civic and Social Center Development of the University of Wisconsin in preparation of the season's program.

The question of a systematic provision by which every school principal in the state will be paid for services in getting people together is to come up before the Wisconsin State Teachers' Association meeting at Milwaukee this fall.

Common Laborer Gets Liberal Award Under The Compensation Act

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—Joseph Spevak, common laborer, today understands better than he did yesterday the benefits of workmen's compensation, the industrial commission having awarded him $84.25 together with costs of medical treatment for an injury sustained while in the employ of the Stearns Lumber Company at Odenah. Spevak, through lack of ability as an adept in rapid footwork, stumbled while carrying an armload of lumber and fell from a height of eight feet. He struck his head and shoulders and also felt the contact of mother earth with his ninth rib. He arose from the ground, however, shook himself and returned to his work. At noon the following day his bruises made themselves so noticeable that the doctor was called. The doctor reported him able to work in a short time, but, continuing to feel pain, he quit his job. Finally his arm became so lame that he could not continue work. On consulting with another doctor he was advised that he was suffering with a serious case of synovitis of the shoulder joint. SYSTEM OF COUNTING SECOND CHOICE VOTES A QUESTION OF DOUBT

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—Practically all parties have made a demand on Secretary of State John S. Donald to issue a statement to election officials telling them how second choice votes are to be counted and reported. In many of the senatorial and assembly districts several candidates have entered the field and the second choice votes will probably determine the contest. Secretary Donald said today that he was preparing the statement with instructions for recording the vote so that officials may easily determine the count.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY

Sixth Installment. "The Hunting Party of the Countess" TOMORROW MAJESTIC AND NEW LYRIC THEATERS

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS

Stanley Hargrave, millionaire, having joined what he believed to be a great socialist movement, finds that in reality he has been trapped by the Black Hundred. After a miraculous escape from the den of the brilliant thieves he lives the life of a recluse for eighteen years. One night, surrendering to a restless spirit of rebellion, Hargrave enters a Broadway restaurant and there comes face to face with the Black Hundred's leader, Braine.

After the meeting, during which neither man recognizes the other, Hargrave hurries to his magnificent Riverside home and lays plans for making his escape from the country. He writes a letter to the girls' school in New Jersey where eighteen years before he had mysteriously left on the doorstep of the institution his tiny baby daughter, named "Florence Gray" by the note attached to the handle—and arranges that she be sent to him at once. He also pays a visit to the hangar of a daredevil aviator.

Braine and members of his band surround Hargrave's home at night, but as they enter the house the watchers outside see a balloon leave the roof. The safe is found empty—the million which Hargrave was known to have drawn that day gone. Then one of the men outside announced that he had punctured the balloon and sent it to the bottom of the ocean.

The next day Florence arrives from the girls' school and is greeted by the butler, Jones, whom Hargrave has taken into full confidence. She is later visited by Countess Olga, Braine's companion, who claims to be a relative. Two bogus detectives also call, but they find themselves thwarted by Norton, a newspaper man who happens to be on the scene at the right moment.

Later, Florence is lured from home by the band, but succeeds in freeing herself from their clutches. The next day Jones removes a box from its hiding place and, pursued by Braine's men, rushes to the water front. A race in motorboats ensues. Jones drops the box into the sea and with his automatic sets fire to the pursuing boat.

of them dodged the responsibility. We started out a proposition they would not agree to, that taxes are too high and two weeks later they swing to our side of the argument.

In closing his remarks Mr. Phillips declared that instead of a progressive state government in Wisconsin, there has been an experimental state government. "We have had enough of experimentation in Wisconsin now," he counseled, "and we have found out that the theories which have originated in the minds of some of the politicians have cost too much money when put into practice. We believe that this state government can be placed upon a basis where it will not cost nearly $16,000,000 a year to run it."

Levi H. Bancroft, of Richland Center, candidate for United States senator, also talked briefly in the interests of Mr. Phillips and of himself. "The question now is," he declared, "whether we want a business administration or not. The progressive program in this state has been like the old 'mother Hubbard dress,' it covered everything and touched nothing, or else it was like the modern gown, it showed everything and hid nothing."

PETITION COUNCIL FOR WIDER STREET

City Council Will Hold Hearing On Issue Raised on Widening Monroe Street.

Residents and property owners on Monroe street petitioned the mayor and council at the meeting Thursday afternoon through a communication to change the width of the street from thirty to thirty-four feet, to conform to Glenn street, with which Monroe street intersects. Letters were received from other residents favoring the widening of the street and the council decided to hold a public hearing in the near future, when both sides will be heard.

The controversy is caused by a private contract for curb and gutter improvement by property owners at the intersection of Monroe and Glenn street. At present the street has not been improved with curb and gutters and the highway is not of uniform width. The private contract being constructed allows for a thirty-four foot street, and objections were raised by other residents. The council declared that it was the policy of city officials, not only in Janesville but in all other cities, to have the non-tram streets of a smaller width than those having a great amount of traffic—probably thirty feet. The petition received was signed by the following people: H. H. Dixon, E. D. Lewis, Hill, C. C. Decker, John Jungblut, L. H. Nickerson, P. P. Starr, W. H. Douglas and Adelaide R. Pierce.

After discussion of the problem the council voted to accept the petition and hold a hearing on the matter.

The report of Chief of Police P. D. Champion was accepted and filed. The report shows that during the month of July there were ninety-two arrests made, thirty-eight of which were taken into the municipal court and fifty-four discharged from the chief's office. These arrests were for the following offenses: Drunkenness, 75; begging, 3; fighting, 3; insulting women, 3; safe blowing for police at Oak Hills, 2; larceny, 2; Policeman Cain made the largest number of arrests, eighteen; Brown second with fourteen and Chief Champion third with eleven.

The report of Miss Elizabeth Joyce, acting visiting nurse for July, was accepted and filed. Thirty-one cases were listed, nine of which were new cases. Miss Joyce made a total of 166 calls during the month and twenty-three patients remain under her care, six having been discharged as recovered.

A plumbing license was granted to C. E. Cochran and Son and their bonds, one thousand dollars, were approved. A. Summers & Sons were granted permission to use a portion of Franklin street for the storage of material during the construction of a building. Moses brothers were also granted permission to use a part of Milwaukee street for storage of material during the reconstruction of the store front.

After a short session the council adjourned for the day in January on business.

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 8TH

Labor Day Comes Monday, the Seventh. Students Must Begin to Prepare for Another Grind.

Less than four weeks remains before every public school in this city including the high school, will be open to instruction for another nine months' siege, as the youngsters call it. September the eighth is the official day for opening, by virtue of having school commence the day following Labor day which officially comes Monday, September the 7th this year.

The students of the city have realized a little longer vacation this year than in the past. School was not out about the 12th of June and September 1st or so has been the usual date for the opening of school seven days more looks pretty good to the youngsters especially.

GONDOLA SMASHED; TRAFFIC HELD UP

Upper Railroad Bridge is Scene of Destruction This Noon When Freight Train is Destroyed.

A south-bound freight over the Chicago and Northwestern railway, arriving in this city at eleven-thirty this morning, forced a delay of traffic for three hours when one of the gondolas on the train went off the track and smashed up considerably. The cause of the accident is not definitely known as no bystanders or members of the crew were near the scene at the time. It is supposed that when the train came to a stop the Jack-son street crossing, the brakes were heavily set, causing a sudden jar to the entire train. It is believed the gondola was defective, for it was torn almost completely apart in the middle, the heavy iron beams being bent badly. Both sets of wheels were thrown off the track. The wrecking crew had the line cleared up by noon and the train was back on the track. The heavy iron beams being bent badly. Both sets of wheels were thrown off the track. The Grand Stand.

The grand stand began filling up long before the Monroe Band arrived. The big broad seats, the excellent view of the whole race, the tracks, the view over the ground and the speaking by the political candidates for office proved a mecca for the weary fair visitor, so that before the races actually started and the scoring began for the three races the stand was well filled. It is a fine structure and thoroughly enjoyed by the fair visitors.

CASE IS SETTLED AND APPEAL DROPPED

On the payment of damages and costs of trial the civil action case of A. G. Metzger vs. Charles Eau Claire has been settled by the attorneys out of court and the appeal dismissed.

The action was tried by Judge Maxfield, who gave the decision in favor of the plaintiff, Metzger, and Thos S. Nolan, defending attorney, filed notice of appeal. The suit is over a contract between Metzger and Eau Claire for the sale of hogs. The decision was that Metzger, for the consideration of one dollar, bound the contract for the delivery of the hogs as contracted for, and that the plaintiff was entitled to damages when the property was not duly delivered as was specified.

Good Word for Religion.

This is a broad-minded age, and the gentleman on the last train, who was in what one may define as the talkative stage, shared the characteristics of the times. An' I say this, that considerin' all things, I've not found these religious chaps to be worse than ordinary fellows like you an' me."—Manchester Guardian.

Will Be Sentenced FOR BREAKING JAIL

Commitment Law Prisoner Who Violates Parole Charged With Breaking Jail.

John Conroy will be brought before Judge H. L. Maxfield in the municipal court tomorrow morning on a charge of jail breaking, a star prisoner of fence. The charge made against Conroy was made by Sheriff C. S. Whipple, as Conroy violated his parole under the commitment law and left the place where he had been paroled out to work a year's sentence given him by Judge Maxfield on March twenty-sixth for habitual drunkenness. It is alleged Conroy ran away on May 4th.

Conroy was arrested yesterday at Orfordville for drunkenness and iniquity, and the fact that he had been serving time under that sentence given him in the Janesville municipal court. Conroy was brought to Janesville last night and brought out this morning on the serious charge.

When arraigned before Judge Maxfield, the prisoner waived his examination and will enter his plea Thursday morning, when an information will be filed against him by District Attorney Dunwiddie.

AUGUST CROP REPORT INTERESTING STUDY

Wisconsin and Nation Are Compared In Bureau of Crop Estimates.
—Give Statistics.

Estimates as of August 1, with comparisons, made by the bureau of crop estimates, formerly bureau of statistics, present some interesting statistics and data upon the crop report to date as shown in the following:

The forecast of corn August 1st showed a gain of from 62,750,000 bushels to 66,500,000 bushels. These figures represent the advance only in Wisconsin. Taking the nation as a whole, there is a decrease in the last month of from 2,916,572,000 bushels July 1st to 2,630,000,000 bushels August 1st.

Winter wheat in Wisconsin shows an increase in the past month of some 22,000,000 bushels, while the nation will benefit an increase of some 22,500,000. The spring wheat takes a drop in Wisconsin of from 1,869,000 bushels to 1,780,000 bushels. The United States as a whole will also suffer a loss of some 38,000,000 bushels within the past month on spring wheat.

Rise of about 2,000,000 bushels of potatoes is to be benefited in this state, while the United States will benefit about 10,000,000 bushels. This places Wisconsin in a high position in the potato growing industry and production.

Tobacco is another important crop; 3,000,000 pounds in the increase in the past month in Wisconsin, while the nation benefits a production increase by some 35,000,000 pounds.

Preliminary Preparations Made For National G. A. R. Encampment

Detroit, Mich., August 12.—That "coming events cast their shadows before", is being demonstrated in Detroit in the preliminary preparations and the intense interest manifested by old soldiers and their children and their children's children throughout the country in the national encampment of the G. A. R. to be held here August 31 to September 6.

No stone is being left unturned to make this encampment the banner one in the history of the annual gatherings. Special facilities are being arranged for the accommodation of the story tellers at the "campfires." Open house will be kept by local posts at the G. A. R. building on Grand River avenue, where numerous impromptu campfires will be held. The large campfires of the week, however, will be held in the armory, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, September 1, 2 and 3.

The Association of Civil War Musicians with 200 fife, drums and bugles will attend the encampment. The post members in good standing will be here in advance of the crowds, so as to meet all incoming trains bearing the old soldiers. Many of the departments, of which there are about 45, will bring bands with them. The local committee also has proposals from the musicians' union to provide whatever music or what number of bands required.

In addition to these bands which will echo through the city, making the shuffling feet step lighter and the stiffening muscles quicker, programs will be arranged by all of the churches, in honor of the veterans.

During the parade two thousand school children will sing patriotic songs as the old soldiers pass their grandstand, in Grand Circus Park.

The great event will be the parade, and Detroit, the city of the motor car, will provide automobiles for all of the encamped and disabled. It is estimated that twenty thousand old soldiers will be in line.

The route will be lined with twenty ambulances and an equal number of special police telephones will be installed along Woodward avenue, the main thoroughfare, for emergency use.

Michigan will have four thousand in line the morning of September second. Ohio and Indiana are making special efforts to show under Michigan Illinois, the oldest departments of the country, having been organized first and bearing the honor of being No. 1, and consequently having the right in line, promises twenty-five hundred.

New York with the largest department in the country, expects to close

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville, Aug. 11.—Ollie Trostom of Beloit is spending a few days in the village the guest of relatives and friends.

Reno Egan, who has been spending the month at Antioch, has returned to Orfordville. He arrived on Tuesday morning.

Frank Ashby and daughter, Mary, came out from Janesville on Tuesday morning and spent the time between trains with friends in the village.

A band of horse-traders enroute to Beloit passed through the village on Tuesday with covered wagons and other equipment for camping out.

E. E. Skallerud, who went to California last spring, has returned to Orfordville arriving on Tuesday.

Prof. Crawford of Beloit college was among the visitors to the village on Tuesday.

R. G. Scheibel and Judge Charles Rosa of Beloit were callers in the village on Tuesday, each making inquiry about the political field from his particular angle.

On Monday afternoon as train No. 6 was coming in at the local station, the conductor notified the marshal that he had on board a passenger who was in a state of intoxication. Upon investigation it was found that the "passenger" was John Conroy, a character to whom Judge Maxfield, during the early months of the year, had "handed out" a year's sentence in the county jail at hard labor, and who had escaped from the toils of the law. On Tuesday afternoon he was arraigned before Justice Taylor, who, in view of all the facts in the case, meted out to him a full sentence of sixty days. The officer left on the afternoon train for the county seat where the prisoner was given into the care of Sheriff Whipple. The meeting was doubtless a joyous one.

NORTH CENTER

North Center, Aug. 11.—The farmers feel happy over the nice rain that fell in this locality yesterday. The crops needed it badly.

Agnes Reilly is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ford.

Daily Thought.

There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better or worse, as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given him to till. Trust thyself; every heart vibrates to that iron string.—R. W. Emerson.

Buried, but Not Lost.

It is a good thing to bury the hatchet, but the trouble with this pastime is that somebody always puts a marker at the place to show where the implement is.—Chester Times.

ENDED CORNS

Ask your friend who stands all day long how she ended corns. If they are asked, she will tell you that Blue-Jay took them out. About half the corns in America are ended in that way. So some of your friends know it. Did you ever find another way to end a corn forever? If not, why don't you try the millions who use Blue-Jay? This doesn't doctor corns. It loosens them so that in 48 hours they come out root and branch. There is no pain, no soreness, no trouble. The action is gentle but sure. Please prove this. Then you will know how countless women live life-times without corns. Get a package of Blue-Jay from your druggist today, 15c or 25c. Or write to Blue-Jay, Chicago, for a sample free, postpaid.

NEWVILLE

Newville, Aug. 11.—Willie Giese, who is suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is reported improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Godfrey and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyd and Gene Godfrey, all of Lima, passed through here today returning from an auto trip to Lake Ripley.

Mrs. Jones and son George of Janesville returned home Friday, after spending some time at F. B. Sherman's.

Mrs. Max Brown and Mrs. Richardson attended the regular meeting of the W. R. C. last Tuesday evening.

Charles Husein has been visiting Charles Brown.

F. B. Sherman is tearing down a tobacco shed and barn so as to move to another location. His brother George is helping him do the work.

C. Sherman, F. B. Sherman and George Husein have recently screened their porches.

The members of the W. R. C. are planning to attend a picnic at the lake this week.

Domesticated Canaries.

There are 12 distinct breeds of canaries. About 500 years ago a Spanish sea captain brought from the Canary islands some insignificant little greenish birds which were called canary birds, and from these have been evolved the 12 species or varieties of canaries known to the breeder of today.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Daily Gazette, Aug. 12, 1874.—There is already a project on foot which will as soon as the experiment on the fair grounds has been demonstrated a success, put down a well on the west side. This is highly commendable. We are satisfied that in no other way can a beautiful supply of water for the city be obtained cheaply. A well can be put down on the west side more cheaply than on the hill.

The Foss family was arrested today by the city marshal, charged with keeping a disorderly house. The district attorney and the police justice consented to a temporary withdrawal of the case to allow the offenders to leave town, as they have promised to do.

The literature in the news room at the postoffice covers a wide range of thought, from the New York Ledger to the Janesville Gazette.

It is the intention to talk of crops and the weather. The first is the season and the second takes care of itself.

There is some hay in market, but very little business is being done. Everybody is too warm. The temperature today was very oppressive. The promise of a shower only amounted to a few peals of thunder this morning. At 7 a. m. the temperature was 79 in the shade, and since then it has defied description.

Last night just about when the C. & N. W. express was leaving Chicago for this city a man named Joseph Bridges, just returning from Colorado to Lima Center, was called out on the platform on the pretext that his baggage was to be examined. Immediately after leaving the car he was pounced upon by four men, one the alleged employee, and but for the cries for assistance would have been cleaned out. The cry of "pick pockets" brought aid just as Bridges had knocked down one of his assailants and was attending to a second in a masterly way. The ruffians escaped, but will remember the Lima Center man for many a long day.

PRICES AVIATE AS RESULT OF THE WAR

Higher Levels Sought Owing to Trade Conditions in Country Due to War.

A number of commodities already affected by the war situation went still higher in price yesterday; chief among them, automobile tires, tinware, groceries and drugs. The price of automobile tires was raised 50 per cent. The rubber for the tires comes from South America and Mexico, and the raise is as much due to the Mexican as to the European situation, and the fact that in vessels of a foreign register. Gasoline, however, remained at the same rate.

Solder yesterday jumped seventeen cents a pound, and a corresponding tinware. Most of the tin in this country comes from Wales and England, and it is to be expected that the price will go still higher. Imported granite ware and enamel ware of all kinds also went up in price, but as the American make is quite as good as that of foreign manufacture, the housewife has no great reason to worry.

Metals of all kinds are expected to jump 15 per cent within the next two days. An alloy which is imported from Germany and France, will go still higher. Ammunition and powder of all kinds will soar within a week, it is predicted.

The effect of the European war on drug prices is shown by a circular letter sent out yesterday to retailers by one of the largest wholesale firms of the country. This circular advises its customers as follows:

"In view of the conditions prevailing in Europe and the certainty that renewed supplies can only be imported at high cost, if at all, we have withdrawn all quotations and our published rates must be regarded as a nominal. Practically all prices are withdrawn on foreign goods and drugs, and many items will soon be out of the market."

"You should at once advance your prices, especially on imported goods, oils and German chemicals. To protect yourselves you should advance all goods that have to be imported, and at once, as if the war continues only one month, it will not be a question of price, but of getting the goods at any price."

SIXTY CENT SLUMP IN PRICE OF HOGS

Uncertainty of Livestock Market is Further Indicated Today—Cattle and Sheep Drop.

Chicago, August 12.—The uncertainty of the livestock market was further indicated today when the price of hogs fell sixty cents and trade was unusually sluggish. Cattle and sheep shared in the general depression with falling off in demand and consequent losses in price. Heavier receipts, brought in as a result of the high marks reached Monday, were in part responsible for the downward turn in quotations. Following is the price list:

Cattle—Receipts 17,000; market weak, 10 and 15 cents lower; beefs 7.50@10.50; Texas steers 8.40@9.00; stockers and feeders 8.40@9.50; cows and heifers 7.75@9.30; calves 8.50@11.50.
Hogs—Receipts 38,000; market slow, 60¢ lower; light 8.50@9.50; mixed 8.00@9.50; heavy 8.40@9.50; rough 8.40@8.60; bulk of sales 8.85@9.25.
Sheep—Receipts 20,000; market slow and generally low; native 5.20@6.00; yearlings 6.00@7.10; lambs, native 6.50@6.80.
Butter—Higher; creameries 23¢@28¢.
Eggs—Unchanged; receipts 15,551 cases.

HALF OF ACCIDENTS DUE TO TRESPASSING

Fifty Per Cent of Railroad Accidents Due to Trespassers on Railway Property.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 12.—Over 50 per cent of the railroad accidents in Wisconsin are due to trespassing, according to tabulations made by the railroad commission. During the fiscal year ending June 30, one hundred forty-one trespassers were killed compared with eighteen persons killed on crossings. During the past year there has been a decline in the number of accidents on crossings due largely to the number of crossing protections ordered by the railroad commission.

In the past year 141 persons were killed and 112 were injured while trespassing on railroad tracks. Nine persons were killed and 40 were injured on unprotected crossings. Nine were killed and 24 were injured on protected crossings. Of the protected crossings two were killed and thirteen were injured on crossings protected by a bell; three were killed and six were injured on crossings protected by flagmen and four were killed and five were injured on crossings protected by gates.

Because many of the formerly unprotected "dangerous" crossings have been since protected there has been a decline in accidents at unprotected crossings. In the past three years, for the first time, 41 persons were killed and 102 were injured on unprotected crossings. For 1913, 32 were killed and 82 were injured on such crossings and during the fiscal year just closed nine were killed and only 18 were injured on unprotected crossings. Exclusive of trespassers there has also been a steady decline in accidents. During 1912, 7 were killed and 86 were injured on all crossings; during 1913, 40 were killed and 110 were injured and during the past fiscal year 13 were killed and only 64 injured.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE APOLLO.

"A Million Bids," which is being shown at the Apollo, only holds the world's record for the length of its run on Broadway. The play has been adapted from the play "Agnes" and has been rightly called "Vivian's photo-play masterpiece." After the death of her father Agnes falls a victim of her mother's selfishness. She wants and insists upon her daughter marrying Rich. Agnes marries an Australian millionaire and her honeymoon their yacht is wrecked. The bridegroom is rendered unconscious, the mother is lost and Agnes is rescued, and marries the man of her choice and in later years that her former husband was saved, but remembers nothing. The rest of the story is very dramatically told in the play.

Don't let adverse criticism discourage you, but forge ahead like the gladiator. Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

MILWAUKEE PLOW PLANT BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE

Milwaukee, August 12.—The plant of the John Deere Plow company, 96-98 Reed street, was damaged to the extent of $20,000 by an early morning fire today. The loss is covered by insurance.

Live Questions Asked By Wisconsin Farmers

Making Good With Alfalfa.

Never seed alfalfa after August 15th nor cut a crop of alfalfa hay after September 15th.

This is the recommendation which L. F. Graber, secretary of the Alfalfa Order of the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment association, is offering to Wisconsin farmers who ask for information on growing this popular forage crop. Numerous tests have shown that for the best results alfalfa should not be planted much later than the first of August and that it pays to leave some of the crop standing in the fall so as to prevent winter killing.

Reports from many Wisconsin growers indicate, clearly, that late seeding and late cutting are the principal causes of a large percentage of failures. It is a difficult matter to see a nice crop of hay apparently going to waste, but if cut late in the summer the plants, almost invariably, winter-kill or make but little growth the next year. Many of the most successful growers believe that to withstand the cold winters, alfalfa plants should be at least from six to eight inches high. Pasturing alfalfa too often is assigned as another cause of failure.

Sprays For Cucumbers.
The plant known as the green aphid, is injuring cucumber prospects in several sections of the state.

The insects get on the under sides of the leaves and suck out the sap, causing the plants to wilt and die. To control the pests, James G. Sanders of the Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of Wisconsin advises the use of a spray mixture. This may be a tobacco decoction or one of the commercial nicotine solutions mixed with soap suds.

Any mixture can be best applied to large patches by means of an angle spray. Frequently, an attendant can help the sprayer by lifting up the vines with a pitch fork in order to rout the enemies of this important crop. Of course, it is always best to apply sprays early or late in the day.

Sunlight Kills Moths.

"Look out for your woollens, furs and feathers!"
This is the warning which entomologists at the University of Wisconsin give to housewives who, in the rush of canning and preserving time, may have forgotten that the destructive clothes moth is now busily fluttering about on her nightly errands of mischief.

It is no wonder that when mother spots a little yellowish-gray insect sailing about the reading table lamp, the whole family begins frantically to slap their hands together in an effort to crush out the life of the small intruder. This universal pest, which prizes the scientific title of times pellinocella, arranges for the coming into the world of some very undesirable citizens. In dark corners and hatch but small white worms with a highly developed appetite for expensive plumes, and clothing. Through the depredations of its epicurean offspring, the moth time is thus indirectly responsible each year for damaging and ruining thousands of dollars worth of clothing in Wisconsin homes.

Sunlight is one thing which the moth cannot survive. It can live and prosper in an atmosphere of moth balls, but dies in a short time when exposed to the direct rays of the sun. By thoroughly brushing clothes and hanging them in the sunlight for a day moths can be easily and securely eliminated. Another method to rid clothes of the pests is to place them in a trunk or tight box and then put an ounce of carbon bisulphide in a dish in the top of the trunk, afterwards closing the lid.

Avoid Moldy Feeds.
Moldy hay, corn, and oats are now reaping their annual harvest of horse flesh. Harboring as they do various kinds of fungi, such as yeast and molds, these damaged feeds frequently cause a violent sickness in horses and often times proves fatal.

Because of the peculiar actions of horses afflicted with forage poisoning it is often difficult to realize that it is poor feed which is to blame. It is easy to assume that the afflicted animal may have eaten some poisonous weed or drug as did a Waupaca county farmer last week who sent a weed specimen to the University Agricultural Experiment Station with the comment that he thought it was causing the death of his horses.

He wrote that he had already lost two horses and that two more were sick. The symptoms of the disease were first a drowsiness, then a noticeable bulging out of the eyes and finally a complete loss of control accompanied by convulsive fits. A post mortem examination showed that there was a hardening of the contents of the intestines.

The suspected plant was identified as the common Prairie or Bush Pin Weed, which is considered harmless. This led those who were investigating the case to conclude that the poisoning, for such it apparently was, had been caused by moldy feed.

Over forage poisoning is very common at this time of the year when is begun the feeding of newly cut hay. A complete change of feeding when the disease first appears is very important if animals are to be saved, say the university veterinarians. Medicinal treatment includes the use of purgatives as the primary remedy.
